

Policy: Enrollee Claim Submission - Individual Product

Principles:

Health Plans - Individual Product

Purpose:

It is the policy of University of Utah Health Plans to allow enrollee claim submissions.

Description:

An enrollee claim submission is when an enrollee, instead of a provider, submits a claim to University of Utah Health Plans requesting payment for services that have been received.

Enrollees may submit a claim form for reimbursement. The claim form is located on our website here. Fill out the form completely and legibly. If there is information on the claim form that is missing or not legible, the claim form is returned to the enrollee for correction.

- A. The claim is processed in accordance with the enrollee's benefits and coverage policy. Only covered and eligible services will be reimbursed. It must be submitted within 365 days from the date of service to be eligible for reimbursement.
- B. Attach any bills and supporting documentation to the claim form, including proof of payment.
- C. Include your member identification number
- D. Mail or fax to:
 1. University of Utah Health Plans - P.O. Box 45180, Salt Lake City, UT 84145
